

meeting of the stockholders of said company, and to continue the succession of said company; a general meeting of the stockholders shall be held on the first Tuesday of April, or within three weeks thereafter, of which meeting at least one week's notice shall be given by the president and directors by advertisement in one of the daily papers published in Hagerstown; and at each of said annual meetings a president and eight directors, the president to be chosen from the said directors, shall be elected as aforesaid to serve for one year, or until their successors shall be elected at the quarterly meetings of the stockholders for such purposes, and in accordance with such rules as may be prescribed by the laws of said company, may be called by the president and directors, or a majority of them; the president and directors shall meet as often as may be prescribed in the by-laws of said company.

Meetings.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the president and directors or a majority of them shall have power to make and adopt, alter and amend such by-laws, rules and regulations for the direction and management of said company as may in their judgment, from time to time be necessary for the purposes of the corporation; provided, they are not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of this State and the provisions of this charter; and the president and directors of said company, or a majority of them, shall have the power to employ all such agents and servants for the construction, maintenance, repair and preservation of the railway and other property of said company, and the running of cars and transportation of passengers thereon, and for the transaction of all the business of said company as in their judgment may be necessary.

Power.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That the company hereby incorporated shall have the power to make and construct and maintain a railway, with double or single track and sidings as they may deem expedient for the transportation in cars propelled by electricity, horses or in any other manner than by steam, in and over the streets of the city of Hagerstown, in this State; provided, however, that it shall first obtain the right to secure said streets from the mayor and city council of said city.

Construct.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That said company shall not charge more than (5 c.) five cents fare for the conveyance of each passenger over fourteen years of age, and not more than three cents for each child between the ages of four (4) and fourteen years (14) from any point on any line of its railway to any other point within the said city of Hagerstown.

Charges.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons shall wilfully, by any means whatsoever, injure, impair, destroy any part of said railway, or any of the cars, works or buildings, or other property of said company, or place any obstruction on said railway, by means of which any injury may be done to any of the