

and thirty-nine, and recorded among the land records of Baltimore county, in liber T. K., number two hundred and eighty-eight, folio two hundred and twenty-two, and also in a deed from Richard C. Mason; et al., to said society, recorded as aforesaid.

Forty-nine. To the acquisition, holding and disposing by the first universalist church of the city of Baltimore, afterwards known as the "First universalist society of the city of Baltimore," of a lot of land situate in Baltimore city, described in a deed from Robert Purviance, jr., trustee, et al., to the said church or society, recorded among the land records of said city, and also in a deed from Ann Spofford, recorded among said land records. To acquisition.

Fifty. To the acquisition, holding and disposing by the second universalist society of the city of Baltimore, of a tract of land described in a deed from the friendship society of Baltimore to the said the second universalist society of the city of Baltimore, dated December twenty-sixth, eighteen hundred and forty-four, and recorded among the land records of Baltimore county, now city, in liber T. K., number three hundred and forty-eight, folio three hundred thirty-two. To acquisition.

Fifty-first. To the legacy of Joshua Toms to the trustees of Benevola chapel of the united bretheren of Christ, at Benevola, Washington county, Maryland, one thousand dollars, as contained in his last will and testament, recorded in liber H, folio seventy-eight, &c., one of the will books in the office of the register of wills of said county. To legacy.

Fifty-second. To the legacies of Mary Toms to trustees of St. Matthew's Lutheran church at Beaver creek, in Washington county, Maryland, one thousand dollars; to the home frontier and foreign missionary society of the united bretheren in Christ, one thousand dollars; to Maryland conference of the united bretheren in Christ, five hundred dollars; to Washington county home for orphans and friendless children, one hundred dollars; to preacher's aid society of the Maryland conference of the united bretheren in Christ, one hundred dollars, as contained in her last will and testament, recorded in liber H, folio eighty-two, &c., one of the will books in the office of the register of wills of said county. To certain legacies.

Fifty-five. To the bequest to the trustees of union methodist episcopal church of Cecil county, Maryland, contained in the last will and testament of George C. Weaver, deceased. To bequest.

Fifty-six. To the bequest contained in the last will and testament of Samuel Keedy to the consistory of the reformed church of Keedysville. To bequest.

Fifty-seven. To the bequest of Thomas C. Bosley to the methodist preachers' aid society of Baltimore. To bequest.

Fifty-eight. To the bequest of the late Jerome C. Berry, of