

CHAPTER 75.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments sections two hundred and eighty, two hundred and eighty-one, two hundred and eighty-two, two hundred and eighty-three, two hundred and eighty-four, two hundred and eighty-five, two hundred and eighty-six, two hundred and eighty-seven and two hundred and eighty-eight, of article seventeen, of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Prince George's county," sub-title "Roads,"

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That sections two hundred and eighty; two hundred and eighty-one, two hundred and eighty-two, two hundred and eighty-three, two hundred and eighty-four, two hundred and eighty-five, two hundred and eighty-six, two hundred and eighty-seven and two hundred and eighty-eight, of article seventeen, of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Prince George's county," sub-title "Roads," be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, so as to read as follows:

Repeal.

280. The county commissioners of Prince George's county shall divide the county into road districts not exceeding the number of election districts, for each of which they shall appoint, to hold office during their pleasure, a supervisor of skill and ability who, under their direction and approval shall have charge of the repairs of all roads and bridges in his road district except such roads and bridges as the county commissioners may deem it advisable to repair by contract, and such supervisor shall give bond in such penalty and with such security as said commissioners shall fix and approve, and with such conditions as they may prescribe in regard to the duties to be performed, the use, proper and safe keeping and due return of all property placed in his charge, the proper disposal of all moneys coming into his hands for road purposes and for any and all accounting required by law.

Supervisors.

281. Each supervisor appointed under the provisions of the preceding section shall report to the county commissioners in writing at their first meeting in the month of April, all repairs in detail necessary to be made on the public roads and bridges of his road district, with an estimate to the best of his judgment of the proper and reasonable cost thereof; at each and every other regular monthly session of the county commissioners he shall in like manner report to them in respect to the condition of the roads and bridges under his charge, and any newly required repairs not in his said April report.

Report

282. The supervisor of each road district is authorized to hire horses, wagons, carts and ploughs where requisite and necessary, and to employ able bodied men to work on the repairs of the pub-