

day's registry or revision of registration, one of said registers in the city of Baltimore, or the register in the county, shall sign his name or initials immediately under the last name registered under each letter in each of said duplicate registries, so that no new name can be added without discovery; and should any of said officers of registration of the several counties of this State be unable to sit and register the qualified voters of their respective election districts on the final day of the October sitting by reason of sickness or other unavoidable cause, all persons qualified to be registered who shall appear in person at the place of registration on said day and who shall fail to be registered by reason of such disability of the officer of registration, shall have the same right of appeal as if they had been refused registration by the officer of registration; the provisions of this section so far as they refer to the striking off of any names from the registry lists, shall not apply to the action of the officers of registration in the city of Baltimore in the years in which there is an entire new registration in said city as hereinafter provided.

To publish alphabetical
lists,

20. Said officers of registration shall within three days after the expiration of their respective sittings make, complete and publish two alphabetical lists, one of which alphabetical lists shall comprise the names of those persons whom said officers have stricken from the duplicate registries of voters delivered to said respective officers by said respective clerks of courts, and the other one of which alphabetical lists shall comprise the names and residences of the persons whom said respective officers of registration have newly registered as qualified voters in their respective election districts or election precincts at their said sitting, and also the names of those persons whom the proper judges or judge acting under the authority conferred by this article have or has ordered to be registered in said election district or election precinct; the said respective officers of registration shall cause said respective lists to be published by hand-bills posted in such public places as they may respectively select in their respective election districts or election precincts, in not less than twenty of such places.

appeal.

21. If any resident of any election district or election precinct in this State who may become qualified to vote in such election district or election precinct after the occurrence of an election therein subsequent to the last appointed day of the last sitting of the officers of registration for such election district or election precinct shall desire to be registered therein for the purpose of voting at a new or special election to be held therein before the next appointed sitting of the officers of registration for such election district or election precinct, or if any foreign born person shall become a naturalized citizen of the United States and of the State of Maryland, subsequent to the last appointed day of the last sitting for registration of the officers of registration for the
