

Assess-ment. SEC. 13. The council may, whenever they think the public interest requires it, cause an assessment to be made of all real and personal property within the corporate limits of said town subject to assessment for county or State taxes, and they may prescribe the manner in which such assessment shall be made, and provide for adjusting all differences in relation to such assessment, and do all other things necessary in making such assessment; providing such assessment shall not exceed the assessment for State and county purposes; and, provided, further, that no land included within the corporate limits or corporate outlines of said town, except houses and gardens shall be taxed for corporate purposes so long as said land shall be used for agricultural purposes; and the council may levy a tax on the assessable property within the corporate limits of said town, not exceeding in any one year thirty cents in the one hundred dollars worth of assessable property.

Appeal SEC. 14. Any person may appeal from the valuation made by the assessor to the council at their next regular or quarterly meeting, and such council shall remain in session as long as may be reasonable to hear and determine such appeals, and shall give reasonable notice of such meeting and may abate or increase the assessment as may seem just.

Tax list. SEC. 15. Whenever the council shall levy a tax they shall cause to be made out an alphabetical list of the persons to be charged therewith, and shall cause to be affixed thereto the respective sums to be collected from each person, and a warrant to the bailiff to collect the same.

To collect. SEC. 16. The bailiff appointed by the council may enforce the payment of corporation taxes in the same manner and with like effect as collectors of State and county taxes may enforce the payment of State and county taxes.

To pay. SEC. 17. The bailiff shall make all collections required of him and pay the same to the clerk in six months from the time the tax list is placed in his hands, and which said clerk shall hold, together with all the moneys received by him subject to the order of the council.

Duties. SEC. 18. The bailiff shall attend the meetings of the council and perform such duties as it shall direct; he shall prevent disorderly or irregular meetings of persons, and he shall enforce all ordinances that may be enacted by the council.

Fees. SEC. 19. The bailiff shall have the same fees for making distresses or levying execution for taxes as are allowed county collectors; and for making arrests or serving process for violation of any ordinance of the corporation, the same fees as are allowed constables for similar services; and when the bailiff wilfully fails to discharge any duty of his office he may, in addition to the remedy on his bond, be fined by the mayor in his discretion not
