Misdemeanor SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That any person or persons violating any of the provisions of the preceding section of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof before any justice of the peace for said county, shall pay a fine of five dollars for each and every partridge, quail, wild duck, rabbit, muskrat or wild goose so shot or taken; one-half of said fine to be paid to the informer and the remainder as herein-after directed; and on failure to pay said fine shall be lodged in the county jail for thirty days.

License. SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any person not a bona fide resident of said county, unless invited by and accompanying some bona fide resident of said county, to shoot, kill, catch or in any way entrap any partridges, quail, wild duck, rabbit, muskrat or wild goose, or any other wild game within the limits of said county, without first having obtained from the clerk of the circuit court of said county a license permitting the person named in such license to shoot or trap wild game in said county one year from date said license is issued; and that the person named therein or the party procuring such license shall pay to said clerk for such licenses the sum of nine dollars and fifty cents, and fifty cents to the clerk for his fee for issuing such licenses; and any non-resident of said county upon conviction before any justice of the peace for said county, of shooting or trapping any wild game within the limits of said county without license so to do, shall be fined forty dollars for the first and every subsequent offense; on failure to pay said fine the offender shall stand committed to the county jail for thirty days.

Prima facie. SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the possession by any person within the county of any of the birds or other wild game mentioned in the preceding sections of this act, at any time in which the shooting or trapping of the same is prohibited by said preceding sections, or the possession by any express or transportation company of any partridges, quail, wild duck, rabbits, muskrats, wild goose, at any time in which the shooting or trapping of the same is prohibited, shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of this act.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That any person or persons found trespassing upon any private property in this county, which shall have been posted in at least three public places or advertised in some newspaper printed in said county, in each case at
