

furnish to said clerk a record book, to be called the "Cider license record," and in said license record the following oath shall be legibly written or printed: you do swear (or affirm) that you will not buy for sale or sell within the bounds of any election district of Dorchester county where the sale of alcoholic liquors is unlawful during the time for which you hold a license to sell apple cider, any cider except apple cider, made in said county, from fruit grown or produced therein; that you will not adulterate any apple cider, that you may sell or keep for sale by mixing therewith any alcohol or alcoholic liquors or by affecting it with any drug whatever, and that you will not procure such adulteration by or through any one else, that you will not sell or keep for sale any cider which you know or have good reason to believe, has been adulterated by mixing therewith such alcohol or alcoholic liquor or by affecting the same with any such drug, and that you will not sell or keep on your premises for sale, and that you will not allow any of your clerks or agents to sell, during the time for which you hold your license to sell apple cider, any spirituous or fermented liquor or drink, which it is unlawful to sell; the said clerk after previously reading over the said affidavit to each applicant, shall administer said oath to him, before granting said license, said oath shall be printed on the back of each license, and the said clerk shall write under said oath on said license the following or the like words: the above oath (or affirmation) taken by— on the — day of —, A. D. —; said clerk shall sign his name to said memorandum; each person applying for a license shall sign his name in the license book, and the said clerk shall make the following or like memorandum under the applicants name, — cider license number —, issued to (if to a firm all the members should be named) for election district number —, of Dorchester county, to operate from the day of —, A. D. —, to the — day of —, A. D. —, signed, — clerk; the person desiring a license must apply therefor, and if a firm desires the same, a member thereof must apply; and no such license shall be granted to any club or corporation, and no license shall authorize such sale in but one place specified therein.

SUB-SEC. 6. The producer of the fruit or the maker of such apple cider may sell the same on the premises where the cider was made or the fruit was produced in quantities not less than one gallon at one time, and he may sell and deliver the same off his premises in quantities not less than five gallons, and such producer or maker shall not be required to take out said license for such sales.

SUB-SEC. 7. The sheriff of said county and any constable or police officer thereof may require any person or firm engaged in the sale of cider, other than the producer of the fruit or the maker of the cider, selling in quantities as set forth in sub-section