

commissioners fails to pay over any fine as aforesaid, upon conviction in the circuit court for said county he shall be fined double the amount received and not paid over, and shall stand committed till fine and costs are paid, and unless said fine is remitted by the governor within sixty days from the date of the conviction, one-half shall be paid to the school commissioners and one-half to the county commissioners of said county.

SUB-SEC. 11. If any defendant feels aggrieved by the judgment of a justice of the peace trying any case under any of the sections or sub-sections of this article concerning liquors, intoxicating drinks or cider, he may appeal to the circuit court for said county, upon entering into a recognizance to appear in said circuit court as in other cases; but if he shall make oath that he is unable to furnish requisite securities for his said appearance, he may have the case reviewed by any judge of said circuit court under a writ habeas corpus; provided, that said judge is satisfied that such defendant is unable to furnish such securities; and, provided, that the said court will not be in session for more than ten days from the filing of his petition, and provided, that the justice will not be the personal recognizance of the party; in all cases when an appeal is taken while the said court is in session, and the record can be sent up before its adjournment, the appeal shall be heard at such session, if the defendant appealing will deposit the amount of the fine and costs, he may appeal and recognize at any time within thirty days from the date of the judgment, and if he appeals and recognizes within thirty days the money shall be returned to him.

May appeal.

Approved April 8, 1890.

CHAPTER 596.

AN ACT to repeal section eighteen, of article thirty-six, of the Code of Public General Laws of the State of Maryland, entitled "Fees of Officers," sub-title "Criers," so far as the same applies to Anne Arundel county and to enact a substitute therefor, providing compensation to the crier of the circuit court for Anne Arundel county.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section eighteen, of article thirty-six, of the Code of Public General Laws of the State of Maryland, entitled "Fees of Officers," sub-title "Criers," be and the same is hereby repealed so far as the same relates to Anne Arundel county, and the following is enacted in lieu thereof, to apply to Anne Arundel county only: