

CHAPTER 609.

AN ACT to incorporate the Castleman timber and pulp company of Garrett county.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That George L. Wellington, W. R. Getty, Daniel Chisholm, Charles Brown, Peter S. Hay and such other persons as may become associated with them in manner as hereinafter provided, be and are hereby made and constituted a body politic and incorporate by the name of Castleman timber and pulp company, and by that name shall have succession and be able to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded in any court whatever, and may have and use a common seal, and the same alter and renew at pleasure. Incorporation.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the said corporate body shall have all the powers, faculties, franchises and rights necessary, proper and convenient to cut and make logs or billets of wood from standing or fallen timber and transport them by land, railroad or water to market or such places as the interest of said corporation may require, to manufacture from the raw material by means of mills and machinery lumber in all forms, and dressed or prepared lumber or material for building, also pulp out of wood for the use of making paper, and also to buy, sell and dispose of timber standing or fallen, or logs and billets of wood. Powers.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That to enable said corporation to conduct its business and operations it is empowered to build, construct and maintain in said Garrett county, such common road or roads, tram-roads and iron railroads with all the necessary engines and appurtenances as may be needed in said business, and as a facilitation to said business and operations said company is authorized and empowered to erect, construct and maintain in said Garrett county upon the Castleman river, sometimes called "Little Crossings," and its north and south forks, boom or booms, as may be necessary for stopping or securing logs, timber and rafts to be floated on any of the streams or waters mentioned, and for the cleaning out of their beds, and the removing from their banks for a reasonable margin any and all impediments or obstructions, and for the erection thereon splash dams in such number and manner and way as may make them convenient and safe for the floating or moving of logs, timber, rafts, billets to market or such other place or places as may be necessary; provided, such improvements shall not interfere with any bridge, mill-dam or any existing public improvement, without the consent of the owners or controllers thereof. Powers.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the said corporation shall have the power to aquire by purchase or any other means any property or interests therein, real or personal, and to hold, use and manage Powers.