

the intoxication of another person, shall be liable for and compelled to pay a reasonable compensation to any person who may take charge of and provide for such intoxicated person, and one dollar per day in addition thereto in consequence of such intoxication, which sum may be recovered in a civil action before any court or justice of the peace having jurisdiction thereof, and said suit may be brought upon the bond of any person obtaining license under the provisions of this act, and shall be liable for the sum recovered in said suit in case the sale is made by a person who has obtained license under the provisions of this act.

Liability
for wrongful selling.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That every husband, wife, child, parent, guardian or other person injured in person or property, or means of support, by any intoxicated person, or in consequence of the intoxication, habitual or otherwise of any person, shall after the giving and during the existence of the notice provided for in the next section, have a right of action in his or her own name, severally or jointly, against any person or persons or body corporate, who by selling or giving intoxicating liquors have caused the intoxication in whole or in part of such person, and the owner of any building or premises, and the person renting or leasing the same, having knowledge that intoxicating liquors are to be sold therein, or who having leased the same for other purposes, knowingly permits intoxicating liquors to be sold therein, that have caused the intoxication in whole or in part of such person, shall be liable severally or jointly, with the person or persons or body corporate selling or giving intoxicating liquors as aforesaid, for all damages sustained as well as exemplary damages.

Right of action.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That any husband, wife, child, parent, guardian or other person liable to be so injured by any sale of intoxicating liquors to any person, and desiring to prevent the sale of intoxicating liquors to such person, shall give notice either verbally before a witness, or in writing to the person or persons so selling or giving intoxicating liquors, or to owner or lessor of the premises wherein such intoxicating liquors are given or sold, or file with the nearest justice of the peace in the town or district wherein such intoxicating liquors may be sold, notice to all liquor dealers not to sell or give to such person any intoxicating liquors from and after the giving or filing such notice, and the said justice of the peace shall immediately inform the person or persons to whom the notice or notices are given, such notice filed with said justice of the peace shall be entered by him in a book to be kept for such purpose, which shall be open for the inspection of all persons interested; and any notice entered in such book shall by the justice of the peace having charge of the same be erased and so obliterated as not to be legible upon the demand of the person by whom such notice was filed, and thereafter such notice shall cease and end, and said justice of the peace shall be

To give notice.