

entitled to demand and receive a fee of ten cents for the filing and entry of every such notice.

Effect of notice. SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That such notice whether served personally or filed with the justice of the peace as aforesaid, shall during its existence, inure to the benefit of all persons interested, the same as if a notice had been served by each; and if any justice of the peace fail or refuse to make such record as herein provided, he shall upon conviction thereof be fined not more than ten nor less than five dollars.

May sue. SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That a married woman shall have the same right to bring suit and control the same, and the amount recovered as a feme sole; and all damages recovered by a minor under this act shall be paid either to such minor or to his or her parent, guardian or next friend as the court shall direct.

Unlawful to publish. SEC. 14. And be it enacted, That any saloon keeper, grocer or other person who publishes the fact of any notice having been given as provided for in the foregoing sections, by posting such notices in any saloon, grocery or other place, or by printing or causing the same to be printed in any newspaper, circular or in any other way gives publicity to the fact that such notice has been given, shall upon conviction thereof, be fined not less than ten nor more than fifty dollars for each offense.

Bond to be liable. SEC. 15. And be it enacted, That for all fines, costs and damages assessed against any person in consequence of the sale of intoxicating liquors as provided for in the foregoing sections, suit may be brought upon the bond filed by said person according to the provisions of section six, if said person has applied for and received license under the provisions of said section; but if he or she has not filed such bond, then the real estate and personal property of such person, of every kind without exception or exemption, shall be liable to execution on any judgment recovered, and said judgment shall be a lien upon such real estate until it is paid.

To indict. SEC. 16. And be it enacted, That from and after the passage of this act, it shall be the duty of the grand jury in and for Garrett county at its several sessions, diligently to enquire into and present and indict all persons violating any of the provisions of this act, and it shall be the duty of the court before whom such person shall be convicted, to suppress his or her license in addition to the penalties imposed for violation of any of the provisions of this act.

SEC. 17. And be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the compounding or sale of any such liquors for medicinal purposes by a pharmacist and druggist, who shall or may obtain a license under the license law of this State, and upon a written bona fide prescription of a regular practising physician, whose name shall be signed thereto, and all such pre-