

Repeal.

seven, four hundred and eight, four hundred and nine, four hundred and ten, four hundred and eleven, four hundred and twelve, four hundred and thirteen, four hundred and fourteen, four hundred and fifteen, four hundred and sixteen, four hundred and seventeen, four hundred and eighteen, four hundred and nineteen, four hundred and twenty, four hundred and twenty-one, four hundred and twenty-two, four hundred and twenty-three, of article twenty-two, of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Washington county," sub-title "Williamsport," be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted as follows :

Body corporate.

403. The citizens of the town of Williamsport, in Washington county, are a body corporate by the name of the "Burgess and Commissioners of Williamsport," and by that name may sue and be sued, and have and use a common seal.

Bounds.

404. The bounds of said town as described on a plat thereof, recorded in the office of the clerk of the circuit court for Washington county, are hereby extended so as to include all the territory within the following limits, beginning at low-water mark on the right bank of the Conocoheague creek, at its confluence with the Potomac river, and running along said bank up stream to the stone bridge; then crossing the said creek on a line with the lower side of said bridge, to the east side of the public road leading to the said bridge; then nearly due north along the east side of the public road leading to the stone mill, to the intersection of the line between the lands of Victor Cushwa and the lands belonging to the said stone mill property; then by a straight line eastwardly crossing the Western Maryland railroad, at a point north of the new passenger station, and continuing between the lands of Victor Cushwa and Charles Ardinger, and William H. Beard and Charles Ardinger to the Williamsport and Green Castle turnpike, to the point of intersection with a straight line covering the eastern boundary of said town, as it now is; then running south with said line and along with said eastern boundary to the stone fence on the Boonsboro' road; then southwestwardly by a direct line to the lower end of lock number forty-four, on the Chesapeake and Ohio canal; then continuing the same line without variation to the Potomac river at low-water mark, and thence up stream along the said low-water line of the Potomac river to the place of beginning.

Election.

SEC. 405. The male citizens of Williamsport of the age of twenty-one years, and who have resided in said town for twelve months next preceding the election, shall annually on the first Monday in March, elect a burgess and assistant burgess and five commissioners of said town, who shall have resided within the town twelve months next preceding the election, and who have during the year immediately preceding said election been assessed and paid taxes on real or personal property in said town, and who shall not be in arrears for taxes due the said corporation at the time of their qualification.