

board, whose duty it shall be to receive and receipt for all moneys belonging to said corporation, or to which it shall in anywise be entitled, to collect and receive all taxes, general or special, levied upon the assessed value of all property within said town, and to receive all fines and penalties imposed by said board, and to discharge such other duties pertaining to his office, as are or may be imposed by law or any ordinance of said board; provided, that before entering upon the duties of his office, the said treasurer shall annually give bond to the said president and commissioners with sureties to be approved by said board, in double the amount of money which said board shall estimate will come into the hands of said treasurer during the term for which he shall be appointed, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties as said treasurer; and the said board shall have authority, at any time, to require the said treasurer to give additional bond or security conditioned as aforesaid, when the amount of money in his hands, or to come into his hands during his term of office, shall be greater than was estimated as aforesaid by said board; said treasurer shall continue in office until his successor is appointed and qualified, but shall be subject to removal by said board for neglect of duty, disobedience to its orders, or other malfeasance in office; as the entire compensation for all the services which he shall render under and by virtue of the powers and duties conferred and laid on him by this act, or the ordinances of said board, he shall receive a sum not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars annually, or a pro rata rate for a shorter period, to be paid as said board shall direct; said board shall have power at any time, to fill a vacancy in said office of treasurer caused by death, resignation, removal or otherwise; and the preceding portion of this section shall apply to a treasurer so appointed, except as to the term of his office, which shall be only to fill the unexpired term of his predecessor.

134 B. Said treasurer may and shall enforce the payment of town taxes, general and special, with the same power and with the like effect as collectors of State and county taxes may enforce payment of State and county taxes under the Public General Laws of the State of Maryland.

134 C. All moneys belonging to the said corporation which shall come into the hands of the said treasurer during each week, shall be deposited by him by the close of said week in one of the national banks of Elkton to the credit of the said president and commissioners, and the moneys thus deposited shall be drawn out only by check signed by the said treasurer and countersigned by the said president; and in case of the absence or disability of either or both, or a vacancy in either or both of said positions, then by check signed and countersigned by such person or persons as said board may designate; all documents, books and papers belonging to the office of treasurer are hereby declared to be the