CHAPTER 634.

AN ACT to legalize and make valid the acts of the Taneytown savings bank, a body corporate under the provisions of the General Laws of the State of Maryland, relating to corporations, in omitting to appoint a committee of five members thereof to investigate its affairs and publish a report thereof once in every twelve months, and to declare a dividend every six months of the interest and profits of said institution.

Preamble WHEREAS, The Taneytown savings bank incorporated under the provisions of the general law of this State relating to corporations, has omitted to appoint in every twelve months five competent members of said corporation, a committee of examination to investigate the affairs of said corporation, and to publish a report of such investigation in one or more newspapers published in Carroll county; and also omitted to declare a dividend once in every six months in each and every year of the interest and profits of said bank;

Preamble WHEREAS, It appears that the affairs of said bank are in a prosperous and strong financial condition, and that said omissions have been by inadvertance and not with the intention of evading the requirements of the law.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the acts of the Taneytown savings bank in omitting to appoint in every twelve months five competent members of said
