

J. Bennett, partners, trading as Taylor and Bennett, the sum of twenty-three dollars and seventy cents, and Thomas H. C. Morgan, the sum of twenty-seven dollars and sixty-five cents for double licenses paid into the treasury of Maryland.

WHEREAS, It appears from the license book of the clerk of the circuit court for Wicomico county, that Zachariah W. Taylor did, on the fifth day of July, eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, take out an "Oyster house license," under the law regulating the sale of spirituous and fermented liquors for the period of one year, under the act of the General Assembly of Maryland, session of eighteen hundred and eighty-six, chapter five hundred and seven, and the circuit court of Wicomico county, at the March term eighteen hundred and eighty-eight, decided under the local laws regulating the sale of liquors in Wicomico county, chapter two hundred and seventy, section three, laws of eighteen hundred and eighty-four, that all licenses for the sale of liquors in Wicomico county, shall terminate on the first day of May of each and every year; and which said Zachariah W. Taylor paid into the State treasury a double license for the space of two months and five days, at the rate of four dollars and sixteen and two-third cents per month, to wit: from the first day of May to the fifth day of July, eighteen hundred and eighty-eight; it further appears that under said decision, Wesley Clarkson paid into the treasury of the State of Maryland a double license for the space of two months Preamble. and nineteen days, at the rate of four dollars and sixteen and two-third cents per month, to wit: from May the first, eighteen hundred and eighty-eight, to July nineteenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-eight; it further appears that Nathaniel Baker, jr., under said decision paid into the treasury of the State of Maryland a double license for the space of two months and seventeen days, at the rate of four dollars and sixteen and two-third cents per month, from June the first, eighteen hundred and eighty-eight, to August seventeenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-eight; it further appears that under said decision, L. Samuel Perdue paid into the treasury of the State of Maryland a double license for the space of six months at the rate of four dollars and sixteen and two-third cents per month, from May first, eighteen hundred and eighty-eight to November first, eighteen hundred and eighty-eight; it further appears that under said decision, Matthias Taylor and William J. Bennett, trading as Taylor and Bennett, paid into the treasury of the State of Maryland a double license for the space of six months and twenty-five days, at the rate of four dollars and sixteen and two-third cents per month, from May first to November twenty-fifth, eighteen hundred and eighty-eight; it further appears that under said decision, Thomas H. C. Morgan paid into the treasury of the State of Maryland a double license for the space of seven months and seventeen days, at the rate of