

tration, respectively, they shall sit at some convenient place in their respective wards from nine o'clock in the morning until five o'clock in the afternoon on the first Wednesday in June and tri-annually thereafter, having given at least five days prior notice, by advertisement inserted in some newspaper published in Frederick City and by hand-bills set up at public places in their respective wards, of the time and place of sitting to correct said list; and at the time and place published by them for correcting said books of registration and list, as published by them respectively; they shall proceed to strike from said lists persons known or made known to them to have died or who do not possess the requisite qualifications, or who will not possess said qualifications before the election next ensuing or who are disqualified under the second and third sections of article first of the constitution, and to register the name of every person who shall apply to them to be registered who shall satisfy said officer of registration that he possesses or will possess the requisite qualifications before the election next ensuing and that he is not disqualified under the second and third sections of the first Article of the Constitution; and also the name of every person whom a judge of the Circuit Court for Frederick County to which an appeal shall be taken from the decision of any officer of registration, shall decide to be entitled to be registered as a qualified voter; but after the first registration under this sub-title of this article the old registration list shall be used as a basis of the new registration, and no person whose name appears on the last registry list of any ward, shall have his name stricken therefrom, because of his failure to again apply for registration, and after the first registration it shall be the duty of the officer of registration, when giving notice as aforesaid of the time and place he will sit to correct the registry list of his ward, to publish in the same manner that said notice is published a list of all names stricken from the registry list of his ward and a separate list of all names placed upon said list since registration of the year before.

SEC. 166. It shall be the duty of said officers of registration of the respective wards to cause a list of the qualified voters in their respective wards of the city to be published in at least one newspaper in Frederick City, and in hand-bill form, and to have the registry list of each ward posted up in at least five of the most public places in said ward for at least five days before the first Wednesday in June in each year, and said lists shall state the names of each and every registered voter of said ward, and state opposite the name of each, whether white or colored, and any person who shall