SEC. 231. Each of the stenographers so appointed shall be skilled in the practice of his art, and shall hold his position during the pleasure of the Supreme Bench. It shall be his duty under the direction of the judge of the court to which he may be assigned for the time being to take full stenographic notes of all oral testimony and judicial opinions orally delivered in every judicial proceeding and it shall be his duty to furnish to any party to such proceeding upon request a type-written copy of the notes of testimony and judicial opinions so taken by him or of such part thereof as may be required, on payment by such party of the expenses of such copy at such rates as shall be fixed by rule of court at the time. Whenever any judge shall be satisfied that a copy of all or any part of the stenographic notes of testimony or judicial opinions taken during any judicial proceeding at which he presided is necessary for the purpose of justice, he shall, under such rules as shall be prescribed by the Supreme Bench, pass an order that the expense of making a copy of such part of said stenographic notes as he shall specify in said order, shall be deemed a necessary disbursement of the proceeding and allowed as such to the prevailing party, and it shall be so taxed in the bill of costs, but shall be paid in the first instance as shall be directed in said order.
