

dition to the usual standing committees of said town council, appoint two members of said council, who together with himself as chairman, shall constitute one of the regular standing committees of said town council, to be known as the committee on water works, and it shall be the duty of said committee to establish water rates and charges, and to exercise a constant supervision over all said water works and all the property and business connected therewith, and the running and operating of the same, and over the superintendent thereof and all other servants, agents and employees of said town, who may be appointed, hired or employed in and about the same, as hereinafter directed, and shall at each meeting of said council make due report to the same of their conduct in relation to all said business, and shall make all such recommendations in relation to the property and business of said water works they may deem proper, all of which shall be subject to the approval, disapproval, or action of the mayor and councilmen of said town.

Standing
committees

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the first regular meeting of the mayor and councilmen, after the election of officers on the first Monday in April, 1892, and annually thereafter said mayor and councilmen shall elect some suitable and competent person to serve for one year from his said appointment as superintendent of said water works, whose duties shall be to have the full control, custody, possession, care and management of all the property and business belonging, or in any way pertaining to said water works, and the repair, running, operating and conduct of the same, and the making of connections to serve the patrons of said works with water, and he shall quarterly during his term of office make out all water bills against water takers in the name of the mayor and councilmen of said town, and place them in the hands of the bailiff of the town for collection, and he shall perform all other services in relation to the property and business of said water works, which may be directed by said committee on water works, or said mayor and councilmen, and shall in the performance of all the aforesaid duties, be subject to the orders and control immediately of said committee, and ultimately of the mayor and councilmen, and shall be removable at the pleasure of the mayor and councilmen for or without cause, and in case of the removal, death or resignation of superintendent, said mayor and councilmen shall appoint a successor for the unexpired portion of his term, and they shall annually at the time of his appointment fix his salary or the rate of compensation to be paid him, and the time thereof.

Superintendent—
his duties

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That on and after the said first Monday in May, 1892, all the rights, powers and duties con-