

217. All fines imposed by the said president and commissioners shall be collected in the same manner as small debts, except as is in said sub-title otherwise provided. Fines.

220. Hereafter not less than two hundred and fifty dollars of the annual levy by the County Commissioners of Cecil County, for keeping in repair the highways in said county as may be levied or taxed upon the assessable value of real and leasehold property within the limits of said town, shall be annually turned over to the president and commissioners of said town, by the county commissioners aforesaid, and belong to and become part of the income of said town, to be by said president and commissioners of said town appropriated for the repair and improvement of the public highways or streets within the limits of said town; and it shall be the duty of the said county commissioners in estimating for any annual levy to ascertain what proportion of the said levy is applicable alone to the construction and repair of highways within said county. County commissioners to turn over part of taxes

221. This act shall take effect from the date of its passage; but the president and commissioners, and bailiff and all other officers appointed by them now in office, shall continue in office under the provisions of the existing charter of said town until after the commissioners to be elected hereafter shall have been elected and have qualified when the term of said president and commissioners now in office shall cease; and all acts done and to be done by said board of officers now in office, done according to the existing charter shall be valid until that time, and for that purpose the existing charter shall continue to determine their powers and duties. Effective Hold over.

Approved March 17th, 1892.

CHAPTER 150.

AN ACT to repeal section six hundred and fifty of article four, of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "City of Baltimore," sub-title "Liquor and Intoxicating Drinks."

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Maryland, That section six hundred and fifty of