

other cause, such money cannot be safely or reasonably paid to any person or persons, it shall be lawful for the mayor and city council to file a bill or petition in any Court of Equity in the city or county where the property condemned, or any portion thereof, lies, and whenever such court shall be satisfied for any of the persons aforesaid that such money ought to be paid into such court, it shall pass such decree as it shall deem proper, and the payment of any money into court under any such decree or order shall be considered in all respects equivalent to a tender thereof to any person or persons entitled to such money and who may be made a proper party to such proceeding.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 30th, 1892.

---

CHAPTER 166.

AN ACT to repeal sections one, ten, twenty and twenty-three of article two of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Anne Arundel," sub-title "Almshouse," and to re-enact with amendments sections one and ten.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That sections one, ten, twenty and twenty-three of article two of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Anne Arundel County," sub-title "Almshouse," be and the same are hereby repealed and that said sections one and two be and the same are hereby re-enacted with amendments so as to read as follows :

1. The County Commissioners of Anne Arundel County at their first meeting in the month of January, or as soon thereafter as possible, in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-three and in each year thereafter, shall appoint seven discreet and proper persons, one from each election district of said county, to be trustees of the poor of said county; and the county commissioners for said county shall at their first meeting in the month of April, eighteen hundred and ninety-two, appoint seven discreet and proper persons to be trustees of the poor of said county who shall act as such trustees until their successors are duly appointed and qualified as herein provided.

10. They, or a majority of them, shall meet together at the almshouse in said county on the first Monday in February, yearly, and at such other times as they shall deem