

for the enforcement of the ordinance of the town the mayor shall have all the powers of a police justice in ordering arrests, summoning witnesses, and enforcing their attendance by attachment and fines, administering oaths, trying cases, inflicting fines and punishments, and committing in default of payment of fines and costs to the town lockup or the county jail for a period not to exceed thirty days, and to demand and receive the same fees as are allowed justices of the peace in criminal cases; and the mayor shall keep a docket for the corporation in which shall be entered all cases that come before him, and the judgment rendered with the fines imposed and taxed costs, and shall render statements and submit his docket to the council quarterly; and for his services shall receive, in addition to his fees, an annual salary of fifty dollars.

Officers to be appointed SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That at the first regular meeting after the annual election the mayor, by and with the advice and approval of the council, shall appoint a clerk to said board, a treasurer, a policeman, a collector of taxes, and a night watchman if deemed advisable; provided, that the clerk and treasurer, may be members of the council, either of these officers may be removed from office by the council with the approval of the mayor; and the council shall fix their compensation by ordinance.

Duties of clerk. SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That the clerk shall keep a careful record of the proceedings of the council and record all the ordinances passed, and keep an accurate account of the town's finances, in separate, well bound books kept exclusively for that purpose; keep all books, records, papers and documents in his safe custody; and turn the same over to his successor in office, issue licenses and permits and receive the money therefor, and pay the same over to the treasurer monthly, and make monthly reports of the same. He shall file all accounts and claims presented against the town, and when the same are passed by the council make a record of the same, and perform such other duties as are imposed upon him by law, or ordinances, or by order of the council. He shall subscribe to an oath for the faithful performances of his duties, and give bond to the State of Maryland in the sum of five hundred dollars, to be approved by the mayor and council, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties.

Treasurer. SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That the treasurer shall receive all money that may be collected for taxes, fines, or otherwise, by any law or ordinance, directly or through the collector, clerk, or mayor, and credit each item under separate heads, and shall deposit the same in bank to his