

the said assessors to subscribe to an oath to perform the duties imposed upon them without favor, fear, partiality or prejudice; and they shall within thirty days from qualification make return of their assessment to the mayor and council; and anyone feeling aggrieved at the valuation of his or her property by said assessors, may at any time within thirty days appeal from said valuation to the council, who, on good cause shown, may make any change or alteration in said assessment which they may think proper and right; and all taxpayers may inspect the books of assessment free of charge.

SEC. 24. And be it enacted, That the council shall in each and every year, at least thirty days before striking the levy, add and include in the assessment all taxable property omitted by the assessors, all property acquired since the assessment and all improvements made since: and they shall give at least thirty days' notice by hand bills of the time of making the levy and shall hear all complaints made, at the meeting next ensuing of any such addition to the assessment of property, omitted acquired and improved, and the councilman shall each receive an annual salary of fifteen dollars.

Add other property
annually.

SEC. 25. And be it enacted, That the council shall levy at the first meeting in January annually, on the assessable property of the town a sum sufficient to meet the current expenses of the preceding year, such taxes not to exceed twenty-five cents on every one hundred dollars worth of property, and such further tax as hereinafter provided for, to meet the present outstanding indebtedness of the town, and such taxes when levied, shall be a lien upon the property assessed, and shall be collected as county taxes are collected in Worcester County or as debts are collected or the mayor and council may adopt, by ordinance, some other mode for the collection of the same.

Levy
annually

SEC. 26. And be it enacted, That for the purpose of defraying the cost and expenses incurred in laying out new streets and widening and improving old ones, and protecting the property within the corporate limits from destruction by fire in the purchase of a fire engine and hose, and the erection of a lockup and engine house, the mayor and council are empowered to borrow money not exceeding eighty-five hundred dollars on the faith and credit of said town and to issue bonds of indebtedness in denominations of five hundred dollars, bearing interest at a rate not exceeding six per cent. per annum, payable annually, said bonds to be numbered and made payable in ten years from date,

Borrow
money

Issue
bonds.