Said board shall have power to remove any of said officers of registration for misconduct, inefficiency, or neglect of duty, and vacancies occurring amongst said officers of registration by death, removal from the city of Baltimore, disqualification from any cause, or removal by the board of supervisors of election, shall be promptly filled, and the names of their successors duly published by said board. It shall also be the duty of said board of supervisors of elections, not less than two months before every election to be hereafter held in the city of Baltimore, to select three discreet and qualified persons, no one of whom shall hold office or employment under the Government of the United States or of the State of Maryland or of the city of Baltimore, to act as judges of election in each of the voting precincts of said city, two of whom shall always be selected from the two leading political parties of the State, one from each of such parties. The said persons so selected to act as judges must be men of good repute and character, who can speak, read and write the English language, and are skilled in the four fundamental rules of arithmetic; and they must be of good understanding and capable. They must be also legal residents and voters of the voting precincts for which they are so selected to act as judges. Having selected the said persons for appointment as judges, it shall be the duty of the board of supervisors to publish their names once in all the daily newspapers of Baltimore city whose owners will insert the same for a reasonable compensation, not less than five weeks before the election for which they shall be selected to act, to the end that public opportunity may be given to examine into and investigate their qualifications and fitness to act as such judges.
