

two weeks after such publication of said names shall receive and carefully consider all complaints in writing preferred against their fitness and qualifications, and shall substitute in the place of any such persons so elected to act as judges, who upon inquiry shall be found to be unfit or disqualified, or who for satisfactory reasons shall be excused from serving, other persons possessing the qualifications hereinbefore prescribed whom they in like manner shall have full power to remove if deemed by them to be unfit for any cause. When all complaints shall have been considered and acted upon and all applications to be excused shall have been disposed of, all of which shall be done within two weeks of the first publication of the list, as hereinbefore provided, the said board shall prepare a complete and revised list of the persons finally selected by them to act as judges at the succeeding election, and shall promptly notify them of their appointment, designating in said appointment one of said persons as presiding judge, said corrected and completed list of said judges shall then at once be officially published in at least five daily newspapers published in the city of Baltimore once a week for two weeks, and upon the day of election; and no changes in said published list shall thereafter be made except in case of vacancy occurring from death, removal from the State, and physical or mental disability, or by the unanimous vote of the board. Should any vacancies occur from any of said specified causes, the said board of supervisors shall promptly fill the same, and it shall be their duty in like manner to receive, consider and decide upon all complaints submitted to them in writing, touching the qualifications and fitness of the persons so appointed to fill such vacancies, each and every person finally selected and appointed as above provided to act as judge of election shall be bound to serve as such judge for the term of one year, and in case of refusal so to serve shall be liable, on indictment and conviction, to a fine of one hundred dollars, or to imprisonment for thirty days, and a failure to qualify after receiving notice of his appointment by the time specified in such notice shall be deemed a refusal within the meaning of this section, and also a failure to attend any election during said term, unless prevented by sickness, shall be deemed a refusal within the meaning of this section; but any person having once served as judge of election, shall not be bound to serve again for one year next succeeding; in order to enable them the better to perform the duties required of them the said board shall appoint a clerk at a salary of eighteen hundred dollars per annum, who shall keep a regular record of all proceedings of said board and preserve and file all papers submitted to them,

Clerk—
salary of
same.