

saloon, the sum of twenty dollars in addition to the sum now fixed by said article of the Code for an oyster house license; and said licenses shall not be issued for a less period than one year.

Not less than a pint.

SEC. 311 D. Any person who may wish to sell spirituous or fermented liquors, or lager beer, in quantities not less than a pint, in said county, shall, upon complying with the provisions of existing laws, pay to the clerk of the Circuit Court for said county for a license authorizing such sale the sum of ten dollars in addition to the sum which such person would now be required to pay under said article fifty-six of the Code, according to the value of his stock in trade.

Not to be drunk on premises.

SEC. 311 E. It shall not be lawful for any person who may be licensed to sell spirituous or fermented liquors, or lager beer, in quantities not less than a pint, to suffer or permit such liquors, or lager beer, to be drunk on the premises where the same may be sold; nor shall it be lawful for the person who may buy such liquors, or lager beer in quantities not less than a pint, to drink the same on the premises where the same may have been sold. Any person violating this section, shall, on conviction in the Circuit Court for said county, pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or, in the discretion of the court, shall be committed and confined in the House of Correction for six months; and if he be a licensed dealer his license shall be forfeited and suppressed by the court.

Penalty

License shall describe premises

SEC. 311 F. No other license or licenses for the sale in said county of spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer, shall be issued by the clerk of the Circuit Court for said county, than those authorized and designated by the preceding sections; and every license issued under this act shall plainly and distinctly describe the house or premises wherein the person to whom the license may be issued intends to sell such spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer; and but one place shall be named in each license, and a sale of such liquors or lager beer by such person in any other place than the one described in such license shall be, and hereby is declared and defined to be a sale of such liquors or lager beer without a license.

Issuing licences.

SEC. 311 G. Nothing in any of the preceding sections contained shall be construed to authorize the clerk of the Circuit Court for said county, to issue any license for the sale of spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer in localities in said county where the sale of such liquors or lager beer is now, or may hereafter be, prohibited by law. And nothing in