

CHAPTER 207.

AN ACT for the relief of the sureties upon the official bonds of Stevenson Archer, late Treasurer of Maryland, and for the settlement of the litigation on said bonds.

Preamble. WHEREAS, the sureties upon the first official bond of Stevenson Archer, late treasurer of Maryland, have been held liable for misappropriation of the State's funds and securities committed by him, after his second election, when, in the language of the Court of Appeals of Maryland, they "had a just and reasonable expectation that their liability would not extend beyond the period of two years for which he was first elected, with the addition of the short time allowed by law for the qualification of his successor;" and

Preamble. WHEREAS, the second official bond of said Archer has been declared void by the Court of Appeals aforesaid; and

WHEREAS, the suit upon the third official bond of said Archer has not yet been tried; and

Preamble. WHEREAS, the said sureties have applied to the Governor to recommend to the General Assembly the passage of a law relieving them from all liability on said bonds, except for the misappropriation by said Stevenson Archer of the State's funds and securities between the date of his first official bond, to wit: the 2nd day of February, 1886, and the 13th day of February, 1888, by which said last mentioned day he should have qualified under his second appointment of January 13th, 1888; and

Preamble. WHEREAS, the Governor has transmitted to this General Assembly the said application of said sureties, with a message declaring that the case of the sureties presents a strong equity, and recommending that the General Assembly shall take their case into consideration, and grant to them such equitable relief as in the judgment of the General Assembly shall be just and fair, with the additional recommendation that, as a condition of such equitable relief, the sureties on the bonds of said Stevenson Archer shall also pay the amounts misappropriated by him after the approval on the 30th day of January, 1890, of his third bond, and shall also pay all the State's costs in all the suits at law or in equity upon said bonds, and shall also pay a proper compensation to John P. Poe, the State's special counsel in said suits; and

Preamble. WHEREAS, During the period between the said 2nd day of February, 1886, and the said 13th day of February, 1888, the said Stevenson Archer misappropriated twenty-nine (29)
