

oaths taken thereon, fifty cents; for granting any license of any kind, fifty cents; for taxing the costs in any suit or proceeding, to be charged but once, fifteen cents; for a transcript thereof with the items thereof, at large when demanded, to be charged to any person requiring the same, ten cents; for every search for matter above a year's standing, however remote the period may be if found, fifteen cents; for affixing the seal to every paper, or thing when required, except writs and process, ten cents; for issuing writs or process of any kind under seal for every ten words and so pro rata, one and one-quarter cents; for issuing summons for witness, including the names of all witnesses applied for at the time, fifteen cents; for issuing summons for witnesses duces tecum, twenty cents; for short copy of judgment not under seal, fifteen cents; for transcribing the docket entries in each suit and of each executive as required by law, for each transcript, twenty-five cents; for certificate of the attendance of a witness or juror, five cents; for certificate under seal of the qualification of any judge, or one or more justices of the peace to any instrument of writing, including all searches made for the purpose of said certificate, twenty-five cents; for certificate under seal of an admission of an attorney, $1.00; for recording anything required by law to be recorded, and for copies of any papers for each ten words or figures and pro rata, one cent; for arraigning a criminal, fifty cents; for drawing, empaneling and swearing a petit jury, and entering the same on the docket, seventy-five cents; for drawing, empaneling and swearing a grand jury, and entering the same on the minutes of the court, $1.25; for each oath taken in court, and entering the same, five cents; for each entry necessary to be made on the docket or minutes of the court, except those above mentioned, five cents; for making alphabets, and lists of transfers of property for each ten words, and so pro rata, except alphabets to dockets, one and one-quarter cents; for extracting all deeds, for each ten words or figures, and pro rata, one and one-quarter cents; for copying surveyors photos, or recording the same, the same per diem allowed to surveyors for making them; all original papers, to which a party is entitled, to be delivered without charge for a search; no search to be charged for looking for any judgment, or other record, or thing, of which a copy is required or which may be necessary to be recited in any suit or process; no charge to be made for any docket entry not actually made, for receiving and paying over all public money received for licenses, fines or otherwise, five per centum, except the clerk of the Court of Common Pleas, who shall receive one per centum commission for receiving and paying over such public money;