

for entering satisfaction of judgment on justices docket, fifteen cents; for granting hawkers and peddlers license, to be paid by the hawker or pedler, $1.00.

Effective. SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 28th, 1892.

CHAPTER 223.

AN ACT to repeal section six hundred and seven of article four, of the Code of Public Local Laws, of Maryland, title "City of Baltimore," sub-title "Justices of the Peace and Constables," and to repeal chapter one hundred and twenty-five, of the laws of eighteen hundred and ninety, and to re-enact with amendments section six hundred and seven of article four, of the Code of Public Local Laws, of Maryland, title "City of Baltimore," sub-title "Justices of the Peace and Constables.

Repealed and re-enacted. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section six hundred and seven of article four, of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "City of Baltimore," sub-title, "Justices of the Peace and Constables," and chapter one hundred and twenty-five of the laws of eighteen hundred and ninety, be and the same are hereby repealed, and that section six hundred and seven of article four of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title, "City of Baltimore," sub-title, "Justices of the Peace and Constables," be re-enacted with amendments so as to read as follows :

Appoint justices of the peace 607. The Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall appoint seven justices of the peace from the first legislative district of Baltimore City, one from each of the wards thereof, and two justices of the peace at large from said district; seven justices of the peace from the second legislative district of Baltimore City, one from each of the wards thereof, also four justices of the peace at large from said second legislative district; eight justices of the peace from the third legislative district of Baltimore City, one from each of the wards thereof; and four justices of the peace at large from said district; and twelve justices of the peace from the city of Baltimore at large, who shall be appointed from such ward or wards, as the Governor may elect or determine.