Isaac D. Davis of Elkton of the monument committee of said regiment to be used by him in discharging the debt incurred in the making and erecting of said monument.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 30th, 1892.

CHAPTER 230.

AN ACT to make valid the corporate name of the "United Sons of Towsontown Lodge, Number Seventeen Hundred and Seventy-Three, of the Grand United Order of Odd Fellows," which might otherwise be deemed defective.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, on the fifteenth day of June, eighteen hundred and eighty-one, Henry Hill, Charles Preston, Alexander Williams, Benjamin Johnson, Jr., Charles Sheridan and Albert H. Wilson, citizens of the United States and residents of Towsontown, Baltimore County, Maryland, did certify as required by the General Laws of this State that they formed a corporation under the name of the "United Sons of Towsontown Lodge, Number Seventeen Hundred and Seventy-Three, of the Grand United Order of Odd Fellows," which said certificate of incorporation was on the day aforesaid duly executed, and by the persons executing the same submitted to one of the judges of the Judicial Circuit in which the principal office of said corporation was under said certificate to be located, who duly certified his determination that the same was in conformity with the law.

Preamble.

AND WHEREAS, the said certificate was duly recorded in the office of the clerk of the Circuit Court for Baltimore County in which the principal office of said corporation is by the terms of said certificate located,

Preamble.

AND WHEREAS, the said corporate name of the said corporation, to wit: "The United Sons of Towsontown Lodge, Number Seventeen Hundred and Seventy-Three, of the Grand United Order of Odd Fellows," does not include the name of the county in which it was formed for which reason it may be deemed defective; therefore,

Incorporation
