

so inquired of, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not more than three hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in jail for not more than six months, or by both, such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

SEC 279. One accredited representative of each and every candidate or group of candidates, to be voted for at each primary election, to be designated in writing, by such candidates, or group of candidates, and in case of his necessary absence a substitute similarly selected, shall be entitled to be, and remain in full view of the ballot box from the opening to the close of the election and during the count of the ballots, shall be entitled to take such position as will enable him to scrutinize the ballots as they are counted by the proper officers of the primary election, and a refusal to permit any such duly accredited representative to exercise such rights, shall be a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not exceeding two hundred dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding three months, or by both fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 30th, 1892.

---

CHAPTER 239.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments new section nineteen of article thirty-three of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, title "Elections," sub-title "Registration," as enacted by the act of eighteen hundred and ninety, chapter five hundred and seventy-three.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That new section nineteen of article thirty-three of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, title "Elections," sub-title "Registration," as enacted by the act of eighteen hundred and ninety, chapter 573, be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted so as to read as follows:

19. Said officers of registration, when sitting at their respective sittings, in the year eighteen hundred and ninety, and in each year thereafter, in the counties, and in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-one, and each alternate year thereafter, in the city of Baltimore, as in this article provided for the purpose in this article before mentioned, shall