

and ninety, chapter one hundred and twenty-three, and the said treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to pay said sum of money, said claim having been duly approved by said treasury officials according to section fifty-two of article three of the constitution.

Effective. SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 30th, 1892.

CHAPTER 249.

AN ACT to repeal section fifty-one of article six of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Caroline County," sub-title, "County Commissioners," and to re-enact the same with amendments, and to add four new sections thereto to be called section fifty-one A, section fifty-one B, section fifty-one C, and section fifty-one D.

Repealed and re-enacted. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section fifty-one of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Caroline County," sub-title, "County Commissioners," be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments and that four new sections be added thereto to be called section fifty-one A, section fifty-one B, section fifty-one C, and section fifty-one D. to read as follows:

Three commissioners. SEC. 51. There shall be three County Commissioners for Caroline County.

Term. SEC. 51 A. The three County Commissioners for Caroline County, elected at the general election on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in the month of November in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-one, shall hold their office for two years from the time of their election and shall receive the same compensation now provided by law.

Election in 1893. SEC. 51 B. There shall be elected at the next general election to be held on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in the month of November in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-three, three County Commissioners for Caroline County who shall receive the same compensation as is now allowed by law.

Terms. SEC. 51 C. The three County Commissioners elected at said general election in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-three shall hold office for the terms of six, four and two years respectively from the date of their election, and