

7. No primary election shall be held unless at least two weeks' notice of the holding of the same shall be given by publication at least once a week in one or more papers published in the said county. Two weeks' notice.

8. At any time before or during any such primary election, held for the purpose herein provided the candidates, or a majority thereof named on any ticket to be voted for at such primary election, shall have the right to name one person as challenger at the polls for such election; and said challengers and each of them shall be entitled to be present at such election in the room occupied as the polling place, at least fifteen minutes before any ballot box shall be opened, until the close of the election and the signing of the proper returns. Right to name challenger.

9. If at any primary election, precinct meeting or other meeting in Baltimore County, of any political party, held for the purpose of selecting one or more candidates for public office to be voted for by the people of said county, or for the purpose of selecting delegates to any convention of such political party, any person shall knowingly personate and vote, or attempt to vote, in the name of any other person whether living, dead or fictitious; or vote or attempt to vote more than once at the same primary, election, precinct meeting or any other meeting for any candidate for nomination to the same office, or delegateship to any convention, or knowingly and fraudulently vote or attempt to vote at a place where he is not entitled to vote, or by force, threat, intimidation, bribery, reward or offer thereof, unlawfully prevent any person entitled to vote at such primary election, precinct meeting or other meeting from freely exercising his right to vote thereat, or by any such means induce or compel any person entitled to so vote to refuse to or abstain from exercising such right, or induce or compel, by any such means, any judge or other officer of any such primary election, precinct meeting or other meeting to receive a vote from any person not entitled, to cast such vote, he shall on conviction thereof be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and be punished by imprisonment in jail for not more than thirty days, or by fine of not more than one hundred dollars or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court. Fraudulent voting-
Penalty

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That before any persons shall act as judges of any such primary election, precinct meeting or other meeting mentioned in this act, they shall make oath that they will discharge their duties as such judges, honestly and fairly, which oath shall be taken by said judges, before some justice of the peace of said county, which Oath