

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That so soon as the provisions of the previous section of this act, have been carried out all that portion of the bays aforesaid granted to said company shall be plainly marked by stakes or buoys, but nothing shall be placed in the water to impede or interfere with the free navigation of said bays by vessels or boats.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That said company shall have power to build, buy, possess, use and own as many boats or vessels, whether navigated by steam or otherwise, and other species of property as may be necessary for the use of said company in the exercise of its chartered rights; and the said company shall have power to employ as much help as may be necessary or convenient, and to do all other things necessary and proper to be done, to the end that it may have the full enjoyment of and protection in the rights and privilege granted by and consistent with this act.

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That the said president and directors, or their agent or agents authorized by them may agree with the owner or owners of any land, earth, gravel, stone, timber, materials streams or any improvements which may be wanted for the proper construction or repair of the said inlet or canal, for the purchase and use and occupation or division of the same, and if they cannot agree or if any owner is an infant or feme covert, or non compos mentis, or is from any other cause legally incapable of making a valid contract, application may be made by the said company to any justice of the peace, of said county, who shall thereupon issue his warrant under his hand and seal to the sheriff of the county requiring him to summon a jury of twenty of the male inhabitants of said county above the age of twenty-one years, not related to the parties or in any way interested, to meet on the land, or near the materials or other property wanted, on a day named in said warrant, not less than ten nor more than twenty days after issuing the same; and if at said time and place any of the said jurors summoned do not attend, the sheriff shall immediately summon as many persons similarly qualified as together with those in attendance, will furnish a panel of twenty jurors in attendance; and from the panel each party, his, her, its or their agent or attorney, or if either party be not present in person or by agent, or being present in person or by agent, refuse to strike, the sheriff for him, it or them, may strike off four persons, and the remaining twelve shall act as a jury of inquest of damages, and to each, before he acts as such juror, the sheriff shall administer an oath or affirmation, that he will justly and impartially value the damages which the owner or owners will sustain