

same proceedings shall be had in all respects, as is hereinbefore provided; and in case of a second or other disagreement of the jury, the same proceedings shall be had until a verdict or inquisition shall be made and returned as aforesaid.

Crossing
roads or ways

SEC. 13. That whenever, in the construction of said road or roads, it shall be necessary to cross or intersect any established road or way, the said president and directors shall so construct the said road across such established road or way, as not to impede the passage or transportation of persons or property along the same, and when it shall be necessary to pass through the lands of any individual, it shall also be their duty to provide for such individual proper wagon ways across said road or roads, from one part of his land to the other.

Charge
tolls

SEC. 14. That said president and directors shall have power to purchase, with the funds of the company, and place and use any railroad constructed by them under this act, all machines, vehicles or carriages of any description whatever, which they may deem proper for the purposes of transportation on the said road; and they shall have power to charge for tolls upon and for transportation of persons, goods, produce, merchandise or property of any description transported by them on said railroad or railroads, any sum not exceeding the following rates; that is to say: on all goods or merchandise or property transported on said road or roads, not exceeding eight cents per ton, for both tolls and transportation for every mile the same may be transported, and for passengers not exceeding two cents per mile for each passenger, and it shall not be lawful for any person or persons, or for any corporate body to travel upon, or use the roads of said company, or to transport any persons, merchandise or property of any description, upon or along the road or roads of the said company, without the license or permissions of the president and directors of the said company.

Bell to be rung at crossings.

SEC. 15. That a bell shall be placed on each locomotive engine, and rung at the distance of at least one hundred rods from the place where the railroad shall cross any traveled public road or street, and be kept ringing until it shall have crossed such road or street, or a steam whistle shall be attached to each locomotive engine and be sounded at least one hundred rods from the place where the railroad shall cross any such road, and shall be sounded at intervals until it shall have crossed such road or street, under the penalty of thirty dollars for the neglect of the provisions of this section, to be sued for before any justice of the peace of the election district or ward in which such neglect may
