

from three o'clock, p. m., until five o'clock, p. m., and from seven o'clock, p. m., to ten o'clock, p. m., and neither of said justices shall absent himself from the city of Annapolis without first ascertaining that the other justice will be in attendance in his office during the time of his absence, nor shall either of said justices be absent from the city of Annapolis for more than two days consecutively at any time without the consent in writing of the State's attorney and the counselor of the city of Annapolis.

Jurisdiction

172. The justices of the peace of the sixth district of Anne Arundel County shall have civil jurisdiction co-extensive with said county and criminal jurisdiction of offences committed in any of the districts of said county cognizable by justices of the peace under the law, where complaint is made before them, but no warrant of arrest shall be issued by said justices except upon the oath or affirmation of the person making complaint that an offence has been committed and upon being satisfied upon examination of such person making complaint under oath of the probable truth of such charge.

Limits of jurisdiction.

173. No justice of the peace or constable appointed for any other district of said county shall have or exercise any civil or criminal jurisdiction or function of any kind in said city of Annapolis, nor shall they have any jurisdiction over the citizens of Annapolis by issuing or serving process in any civil action against any citizen or corporation of said city nor have any criminal jurisdiction of offences or violations of law committed in said city either by issuing warrants of arrest or serving process of any kind.

Fines to be accounted for.

176. The several justices of the peace for Anne Arundel County except the justices appointed for the sixth district of said county, are required to account for and pay to the county commissioners of said county every three months all the money or moneys they may have on hand at such times arising from fines or penalties imposed under the preceding sections.

Report of criminal cases.

176 A. The justices of the peace of the sixth district of said county shall at the first regular meeting of the county commissioners held in each month, make a report in writing verified under oath made before the clerk of said commissioners of all criminal cases heard or tried before him during the preceding month, which report shall state in each case the name of the defendant, the offence charged, the name of the person upon whose complaint the warrant was issued, the number of witnesses summoned, the name of the officer serving warrant and summonses, the judgment ren-