

sum of twenty-five cents for each of the first three witnesses summoned and returned, and for each additional witness the sum of five cents; and should the sheriff of said county perform such duties he shall be allowed the same fees as are herein allowed to constables; the fees of constables in the sixth district shall be the same as herein allowed constables in the other districts but shall be collected, paid to and accounted for by the justices of the peace as the preceding sections prescribed; and no warrant shall be issued by the justices of the peace to either constable of said sixth district, or to the sheriff of said county on the oath or affirmation of another constable or other officer, and no warrant shall be issued by said justices to a constable or to the sheriff on the oath or affirmation of any police officer of the city of Annapolis; and when any warrant is issued by a justice of the peace on the complaint, oath or affirmation of any constable, sheriff, deputy sheriff or other officer, and such charge shall be dismissed or the defendant acquitted, no fees in such cases shall be allowed by the county commissioners or the mayor, counselor and aldermen to any officer serving such warrant or other process. The constable of the sixth district of said county for the service of all process and summonses for witnesses made by him in criminal cases, shall receive from the county commissioners the sum of fifty dollars per month payable in cash or by levy equivalent to cash on the day of his making report as provided in the preceding section; provided, that if the amount of the constable's fees for services of process by him, as may appear by his report and the report of the justices of the peace is less than fifty dollars, then and in that case such constable shall only receive the amount of fees appearing by said reports to have been earned by him.

Salary of constables of 6th district

Police

178 C. The duly elected and bonded police officers of said city of Annapolis are hereby invested with full power and authority of county constables without pay other than that received from said city in all criminal offences occurring in said city, but they shall not have any jurisdiction in civil cases.

Repeal.

Effective.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed, and that all appointments of justices of the peace for the sixth district of Anne Arundel County heretofore made and confirmed for the ensuing two years inconsistent with this act are hereby declared null and void, and this act shall take effect from the first day of May, eighteen hundred and ninety-two.

Approved April 7th, 1892.