

CHAPTER 339.

AN ACT to enable George W. Long collector of State and county taxes of Somerset County for the year eighteen hundred and eighty-eight to enforce the payment of the taxes not heretofore collected by him.

WHEREAS, The act of the General Assembly of Maryland of eighteen hundred and eighty-eight chapter one hundred and thirty-seven, provided a new system for collecting revenue and taxes in Somerset County, to begin and be in operation only as to the collections of taxes for the year eighteen hundred and eighty-nine and for year subsequent thereto ; and Preamble.

WHEREAS, a certain George W. Long of Somerset County, was appointed and duly qualified as collector of State and county taxes for Somerset County for the year eighteen hundred and eighty-eight under laws, which had therefore provided the manner and means, of enforcing the lien for taxes in said county, and to whose appointment, the act of eighteen hundred and eighty-eight chapter one hundred and thirty-seven by its own terms did not apply ; and Preamble.

WHEREAS, In transcribing the Local Code for Somerset County the codifier thereof omitted the provisions of the prior laws aforesaid, for collecting and enforcing liens for taxes in said county, and inserted upon that subject only the act of eighteen hundred and eighty-eight, chapter one hundred and thirty-seven which did not apply to the taxes to be collected by said Long ; thereby repealing the said prior law applicable thereto, and Preamble.

WHEREAS, the said George W. Long has been unable wholly to collect the State and county taxes of Somerset County for eighteen hundred and eighty-eight, by reason of the said repeal and want of any law, to enforce the same, therefore, Preamble.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all taxes, heretofore levied by the County Commissioners of Somerset County for the said year eighteen hundred and eighty-eight and not yet collected by the said George W. Long, may be collected within two years from and after the passage of this act. Extension of time for collecting.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That all such parts of the act of eighteen hundred and eighty-eight chapter one hundred and thirty-seven and if any amendments thereto, as are applicable to the enforcing of the collection of taxes in said county for the year eighteen hundred and eighty-nine
