

otherwise; and he shall pay the same out to such persons as the county commissioners shall direct; and if the levy be made for the use and in the name of any particular person, he may pay such money accordingly to such person or to his order without any further order of the county commissioners. He shall open an account with each collector of taxes in a book or books kept for that purpose, charging him with the whole amount of county assessment in his district, and such other money as may be due from that district to the county, and shall credit him (the collector) with all payments made to the treasurer. He shall demand prompt payment by collectors, make settlements with them, and report from time to time to the board such as are in default, for the board's uses. In settlements with collectors he shall allow for no delinquencies unless such allowances have been made by the commissioners. He shall keep a correct account between himself and the board of all moneys received by him from all sources stating the source and credit himself with amounts paid out, and shall keep such books and his minute book subject to public inspection. He shall keep all vouchers properly filed, and all orders of the board in proper files for like public examination. He shall keep the commissioner's office open from nine a. m. to four p. m. each day of the week except Sunday and holidays. The clerk and treasurer's bond shall after approval be recorded in the clerk's office of the Circuit Court, and a copy thereof shall be evidence in a case or suit, and if he give a policy of insurance it also shall be similarly recorded. The salary of the clerk and treasurer shall be seven hundred dollars per year. In the event of death, disqualification or resignation or removal of the clerk and treasurer the board shall appoint for the unexpired time.

SEC. 43. And be it further enacted, That at and thence forward from the October term of the Circuit Court for Somerset County eighteen hundred and ninety-two the board of county commissioners shall provide for the immediate payment of jurors and State's witnesses in attendance upon said court. The payment to be made by the treasurer of said board upon presentation and endorsement of the certificate of such attendance issued by the clerk of the Circuit Court for Somerset County to each of such jurors and witnesses presenting the same. And in order to procure the money necessary to put the county treasury on such cash basis the board of county commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered to borrow a sum of money not exceeding six thousand dollars in amount and to pay interest on the same not exceeding five per centum per

Payment of
jurors and
witnesses.