

term of four years, and one for a term of six years from the date of their election, and the judges of the Circuit Court for Dorchester County, or any one of them, so soon as they, or he conveniently may after the said election returns have been officially made, shall fairly determine by lot which of said three commissioners shall hold office for the term of two years, and which for the term of four years, and which for the term of six years, and in accordance with said determination by lot, the governor shall issue to them their commissions for their respective terms; and any of said commissioners elect desiring to be present and notifying the judges thereof shall have the right to be present at the drawing of said lots to see that the same is fairly done. Thereafter beginning at the general election to be held on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in the month of November in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-five, at each general election on the same day in every second year, one county commissioner for said county alternately, as their respective terms may expire, shall be elected for the term of six years from the date of their election who shall receive a compensation of five hundred dollars per annum, and shall be ineligible to succeed themselves, or to hold the office of county commissioner for two years from the expiration of their term of office.

105 A. In case the office of anyone or more of the county commissioners for Dorchester County shall become vacant by death, resignation or otherwise, the Governor shall appoint a proper person to fill such vacancy until the next general election; and if the term of the commissioners by whose death, resignation, or incapacity, the office has become vacant be not then completed a commissioner shall be elected to serve for the unexpired term occasioned by the vacancy. Vacancies

105 B. The powers and duties of county commissioners shall be such as are now and may hereafter be prescribed by law. Proviso.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That all laws inconsistent with, or repugnant to the provisions of this act be and the same are hereby repealed to the extent of such inconsistency. Repeal.

Approved April 7th, 1892.