

dens shall be taxed for corporate purposes, so long as said land shall be used for agricultural purposes; and the commissioners may levy a tax on the assessable property within the corporate limits of said town, not exceeding in any one year fifty cents on the one hundred dollars worth of assessable property.

SEC. 82. The said commissioners may appoint a collector (to which office the burgess is eligible), to collect said taxes, and the term of said collector is to expire one year from his appointment, or until his successor be appointed. The said commissioners shall fix his responsibility and compensation.

SEC. 83. Whenever the commissioners shall levy a tax, they shall cause to be made out an alphabetical list of the persons to be charged therewith, and shall cause to be affixed thereto the respective sums to be collected from each person, and a warrant to the collector to collect the same.

SEC. 84. The collector appointed by the commissioners may enforce the payment of corporation taxes in the same manner and with like effect as collectors of State and county taxes may enforce the payment of State and county taxes.

SEC. 85. The collector shall make all collections required of him, and pay the same to the treasurer in six months from the time the tax is placed in his hands, and which said treasurer shall hold, together with all moneys received by him, subject to the order of the commissioners.

SEC. 86. The said commissioners may pass all ordinances not contrary to the laws of the State, necessary to give effect and operation to the powers vested in them, and in the absence of ordinances, the law of the county shall be the law of the town.

SEC. 87. All fines and penalties shall be for the use of said town.

SEC. 88. All acts or parts of acts, inconsistent with the provisions of this act, shall be and the same are hereby repealed.

SEC. 2. And he it further enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.
