CHAPTER 390.

AN ACT to encourage manufacturers in the city of Cumberland.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the mayor and city council of Cumberland be, and they are hereby empowered to levy for the years eighteen hundred and ninety-two, and eighteen hundred and ninety-three, at the time of making the annual levy for general purposes in said city, upon all taxable property therein, a sum not to exceed fifteen hundred dollars, in each of said years, for the purpose of securing the introduction of manufacturing enterprises in said city, said sum or sums, or so much thereof as may be necessary to be levied to and expended by and under the direction of the Merchants, Manufacturers' and Business Men's Association of Cumberland ; provided, however, that this act shall be submitted for ratification to the voters of said city of Cumberland, at the next city election, to be held on the third Monday in May in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-two, and if not then ratified by a two-third majority of the votes cast for and against its ratification, the levies authorized by this act shall not be made. May levy tax to encourage manufacturers.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage. Effective

Approved April 7th, 1892.

CHAPTER 391.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments section two of act passed at the session of eighteen hundred and ninety, chapter two hundred and two, entitled "An act to appropriate a sum of money to pay for land that may be required for the extension of the Maryland Penitentiary and for the erection of necessary buildings thereon."

WHEREAS, it is now apparent that the payment of twenty-five thousand dollars per annum in the second section of the act of eighteen hundred and ninety, chapter two hundred and two, entitled "An act to appropriate a sum of money to pay for land that may be required for the extension of the Maryland Penitentiary and for the erection of necessary buildings thereon," is wholly inadequate therefor. Preamble.
