

ever, that he may, previous to that time procure from the county commissioners an order stating the amount of such levy, and directing the collector of taxes for his collection district to receive said order, or so much thereof as may be necessary for that purpose, in payment of his taxes; and the several collectors of taxes for said county are hereby authorized to accept such orders in payment of taxes due, and use such orders as cash in their monthly settlements with the clerk to the county commissioners as hereinafter provided for.

F. He shall annually, immediately after each annual levy of taxes in said county, make out in books to be kept for that purpose alone, an alphabetical list of all the taxpayers in each collection district of said county (having a separate book for each district); together with the amount of real and personal property with which each taxpayer is assessed, and also the amount of State and county taxes due from each taxpayer; and whenever the collectors of taxes make his monthly settlements as hereinafter provided for, the clerk to the county commissioners shall note in the proper place what taxpayers have paid their taxes and what amount of interest, if any, has been collected from each of said taxpayers.

G. He shall at the end of each fiscal year, make out and publish in one or more newspapers published in said county a statement showing the amount of money levied by the county commissioners, and the purposes for which such levies were made; and also a full and detailed statement of the several amounts of money received by him, and the sources from which the same were received, and each and every disbursement made by him, the person to whom, and the purpose for which, each payment was made, and the balance on hand, the expense of publishing such statement shall be paid by the county commissioners, and the newspaper or newspapers in which said statement shall be published shall be selected by said county commissioners; and said statements shall be in lieu of the statements required to be made and published by section 11 of article 25 of the Code of Public General Laws of this State.

H. He shall keep in a book to be kept for that purpose alone, an accurate general account of all receipts and disbursements of money for county purposes, showing on what account each and every expenditure of the public funds is made; and said book shall be at all times open to the inspection of the county commissioners and any taxpayer of said county.
