

recovered, the sum of fifty dollars, together with the costs of the suit; and such penalty, when recovered, shall be placed to the credit of the county commissioners.

125. It shall be the duty of the clerk to the county commissioners to pay the certificate of attendance of such jurors, State's witnesses, criers and bailiffs of the Circuit Court when presented to him for payment, and upon his failure to pay any such certificate when so presented by the person to whom the same was issued, said clerk to the county commissioners shall forfeit and pay to every such person for every such failure, the sum of five dollars ($5.00), to be recovered by said party in his own name as other small debts are recorded before a justice of the peace, together with the costs of suit.

126. A certificate signed by the clerk of the Circuit Court, and expressing the number of days any juror, State's witness, crier or bailiff may have attended, and the sum due him for such attendance, shall be sufficient authority to the clerk of the county commissioners to pay the amount specified therein.

218. All county taxes shall be due on the first day of September of the year for which they are levied, and if not paid on or before that date, shall bear interest at the rate of six per centum per annum until paid, and at any time after the first day of January next succeeding the date of the levy, and not before, payment may be enforced by the collectors of taxes by suit, distraint, sale or other proceedings now allowed by law.

219. The several collectors of taxes for the respective collection districts of Montgomery County shall, on or before the first Thursday of each and every month, pay over to the clerk to the county commissioners of said county all State and county taxes collected by them up to date, with such interest as they may have collected; and upon obtaining from said clerk to the county commissioners his receipt for the same as prescribed by clause E, of section 62 of this article shall deliver up to said clerk to the county commissioners all county orders received by them in payment of taxes or otherwise. And said clerk to the county commissioners may, upon the order of the county commissioners, and not otherwise, allow in such monthly settlements, the commissions, now by law allowed said collectors upon the amount of money and orders so as aforesaid paid over to said clerk to the county commissioners.
