

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That the mayor and council shall appoint a clerk of said town from among the qualified voters thereof, who shall keep accurate minutes of their proceedings; and shall enter all laws and ordinances passed by them, in a well-bound book, open to public inspection; he shall attest all laws or ordinances, and cause copies of the same to be posted in not less than two of the most public places in said town; he shall file and keep all original papers entrusted to his care; he shall act as treasurer to said corporation; he shall keep an accurate account of the receipts and disbursements of all moneys and funds of the said corporation in a well-bound book, and shall pay out the same only on the order of the chairman, after the bills thereupon or orders have been passed by a majority of the council; he shall report annually in writing to the mayor and council a detailed statement of the said corporation, showing the several sums of money received and expended, from whom received, and for and on what account and to whom expended and paid and shall cause not less than two copies of said statement to be posted up in the two most public places in said town; he shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed for him by this section, or the ordinances of said council, he shall receive such compensation for his services from the funds of the corporation as said council may, by their order or ordinance, fix; and the said council shall require said clerk and treasurer to give bond with security, to be approved by said mayor, for the faithful performance of his duties as such, which bond shall be made to the said corporation.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That the said council may Meetings meet for the transaction of the business of said corporation as often as shall be required for the transaction of such business, but not less frequently than once in every three months; they shall elect one of their number to act as chairman, and may pass such rules and by-laws for the government of their session and members as are not inconsistent with this sub-title of this article.

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That a majority of the council shall have power to enact and pass all such laws and ordinances not inconsistent with the laws of this State, or of the county or this sub-title of this article, as they may deem wise and expedient for the comfort, health, order, prosperity, peace of said town, and the inhabitants thereof; to open and establish, curb, pave and repair such roads, streets, lanes and alleys as have been or may be laid out for that purpose; to prevent and remove nuisances; to provide against fires, and for the extinguishment of the same; Ordinances,