

collecting the same to the clerk and treasurer of said town ; provided, that if the offence be a breach of the peace or disturbing the good order of the town, or in violation of any of the ordinances intended to secure the safety of the lives or property of any of the inhabitants of said town, or licensing traveling showmen or exhibitors, the person so convicted may be committed to the jail of Carroll County, or to some place of confinement provided within the corporate limits of said town, by said mayor or justice of the peace, until the fine and costs are paid, or for ten days, which ever shall first occur ; and the mayor or justice of the peace who committed such offender may, when it seems proper to him, order such offender to be discharged before the expiration of ten days ; and the sheriff of said county shall be entitled to be paid by said corporation the same fees as he receives for keeping prisoners under the laws of the State ; no fine imposed upon any offender shall be less than one dollar nor more than ten dollars ; and any person convicted under the provisions of this sub-title of this article, or the laws and ordinances of the town shall have the right to appeal to the Circuit Court for Carroll County in the same manner as appeals are now taken under in the general laws of this State.

Neglect
and non-user.

SEC. 21. And be it enacted, That neglect or non-user shall not work a forfeiture of this sub-title of this article.

Effect.

SEC. 22. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 7th, 1892.

---

CHAPTER 422.

AN ACT authorizing the transcribing of certain indexes of records and will-books in the office of Register of Wills for Washington County, Maryland.

Transcribe
indexes.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Register of Wills for Washington County, Maryland, be and he is hereby required to transcribe as many of the indexes in the office of the Register of Wills for said county into a new book or books well-bound for that purpose, as may now be worn out or rendered inefficient from continued use ; and also remodel the entire general index of wills and administrations and guardian accounts ; and that he also fill and supply any vacancy which may now exist in such general indexes.