

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That the said clerk in giving the notice, required by section five of this act, shall embrace in one notice all the names of all the persons whose application shall have been filed at the time of giving such notice, separating them only so far as to make such notice easily intelligible to the public; and if any of the days for the giving of such notice shall be a Sunday, then such notice shall be given upon the next succeeding day, or as soon thereafter as practicable, so as to secure two weekly insertions of such notice in a newspaper before the time fixed for cause to be shown against the issuance of the license applied for.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That clerk of the county who records the said application, certificates and affidavits shall file and carefully preserve the same, and after giving the said notice, if no cause be shown to the contrary, or if cause be shown, and the said judge shall direct in writing that the license be issued, shall issue to said applicant or applicants the license applied for upon receiving from the applicant or applicants the following sums or license fees, viz.: If the license be for twelve months and for opening or keeping an ordinary, or hotel, and to sell thereat spirituous or fermented liquors by the drink, or in quantities of not more than four and nine-tenths gallons the sum of one hundred dollars; if the license be for twelve months and to sell spirituous or fermented liquors by the drink or in quantities of not more than four and nine-tenth gallons at a saloon, bar-room or any other place than an ordinary or hotel, the sum of two hundred dollars; if the license be for twelve months and to sell spirituous or fermented liquors in quantities not less than a pint and not to be drunk on the premises, the said clerk shall inquire of the applicant under oath, to be by such clerk administered, as to the value of the stock of spirituous or fermented liquors he intended to keep on hand in the business he proposes to conduct under the license applied for, and if it shall appear from the statement there made under oath, that the value of the applicant's stock of spirituous or fermented liquors will not exceed one thousand dollars, the license fee shall be two hundred dollars, if more than one thousand dollars, and not exceeding two thousand dollars, the license fee shall be three hundred dollars; if more than two thousand dollars the license fee shall be three hundred and fifty dollars.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That if the license applied for shall be for nine, six or three months, then the
