

SEC. 3. On filing such application the applicant or applicants shall pay said clerk of the Circuit Court three dollars, and said clerk publish the name of the applicant or applicants, together with the names of the freeholders recommending the granting of such license or licenses, in both newspapers now published in St. Mary's County, for two weeks, stating that if no objections in writing be filed within that time, the license will be issued in five days after the expiration of said two weeks. If objection be filed within the time specified, the clerk if requested by the applicant shall notify one of the judges of the Circuit Court of such objection, and upon hearing at as early day as practicable said judge shall decide whether or not such license shall be issued; and his judgment shall be final and without appeal.

Fee.

Objections.

SEC. 4. In case of any complaint before a grand jury for said county supported by competent testimony that the manner of conducting the business licensed by any licensee is conducted in a disorderly manner and in violation of the provisions of this act or of the provisions of the Public General Laws, said grand jury shall present such place as a nuisance and upon recommendation to the court the said court shall suppress such license and no license shall be issued either to the person offending or violating the law for the term of one year, nor shall a license be issued for the sale of liquors for the said term of one year, and be it enacted, that the license fee to be paid for such licenses at the time of their issue shall be twenty-five dollars in excess of the sum now charged for similar licenses, under article fifty-six of the Code of Public General Laws; and the amount now charged under said article fifty-six for such licenses shall be accounted for by the clerk to the State treasurer as heretofore and the excess shall be paid by said clerk to the county commissioners of said county of St. Mary's to be used for the purpose of said county.

Suppression of licenses.

SEC. 6. The fines and penalties for violation of the provisions of this law, shall be the same as the fines and penalties provided, or imposed for similar violations under the provisions of the general liquor license law of the State; and all fines shall be promptly collected by the sheriff, and paid over to the county commissioners, or the treasurer of the same, to be applied to county expenses.

Fines.

SEC. 7. In prosecution for violations of the provisions of this law, and for violations of the provisions of the general license law, it shall not be necessary to state any particular kind of liquors sold in violation of the law, nor any particular date, on which said liquor was sold.

Indictment.
