

be published three times in two leading newspapers in Cumberland of opposite political parties a list containing the names of all such applicants, their respective residences, and the place of business for which such application is made, the first publication shall be not less than ten days nor more than twenty days before the time fixed by said clerk for the consideration of such applications.

SEC. 175 B. Said petition shall state the name and residence of the applicant or applicants, and how long he, she or they have resided there; second, the particular place for which a license is desired, designating the same by street and number if practicable, and if not by such other apt description as definitely locates it; third, the name of the owner of the premises upon which the business licensed is to be carried on; fourth, a statement that the applicant is a citizen of the United States; fifth, that the applicant or applicants have not nor has either of them had a license for the sale of intoxicating liquors revoked, nor has either of them had a license for the sale of intoxicating liquors revoked, nor has either of them been convicted of any infamous crime within two years preceding the filing of said petition; sixth, that he, she or they will not knowingly sell or allow to be sold in said house or on said premises any liquors on Sundays or on election days, or to minors at any time, or allow a minor to drink in said house or on said premises; seventh, that he, she or they will not permit gambling or keep or permit to be kept a bawdy house in said house or on said premises, or the gathering together in said house or on said premises of women for lewd or immoral purposes; eighth, the names of not less than two respectable freeholders of Allegany County who will be his, her or their sureties on the bond which is required by the act, and statement that each of said sureties is a bona fide owner of real estate in the said county worth over and above all incumbrances the sum of one thousand dollars. This statement shall be verified by the affidavit of the applicant or applicants made before a justice of the peace. If any false statement be made in any part of said petition the petitioner or petitioners shall upon indictment and conviction thereof, be deemed guilty of perjury and such license shall be revoked, and he, she or they be subject to the penalties provided by law for that crime.

SEC. 175 C. There shall be annexed to said petition a certificate signed by at least twelve reputable citizens residing or doing business in the neighborhood in which the petitioner or petitioners licensed to do business stating the residence or place of business of each person certifying that

What the petition to state.

Certificate
to petition.