

effective, that from the date it shall become effective any person refused a license under this act, and who shall have one under the present law, shall be allowed the term of two months to dispose of such stock as he or they may have on hand, but if such person shall do a liquor business after the expiration of said two months he or they shall be deemed guilty of selling liquors without license and be liable to the penalties therefor; provided, however, that all licenses in force at the time of the adoption of this act shall continue in force until the first day of May, eighteen hundred and ninety-two; and provided further that nothing contained in this act shall apply to cases pending now to violations of the law which shall have occurred prior to the adoption of this act, but all such cases and violations shall be prosecuted as if this act had not been passed and adopted.

Approved April 7th, 1892.

CHAPTER 435.

AN ACT to repeal section two hundred and ninety-one of article eleven of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Frederick County" sub-title "Law Library" and to re-enact the same as amended.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section two hundred and ninety-one of article eleven, of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Frederick County" sub-title "Law Library" be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted so as to read as follows:

Amendment.

291. All fines and penalties imposed by the Circuit Court for Frederick County upon persons therein convicted of any crime not exceeding in grade a misdemeanor, except such fines as now are applied by law to the county school board of Frederick County, shall be collected by the sheriff of said Frederick County and together with all forfeitures that may be collected by said court by judgment or decree thereof, to the amount of two hundred dollars, shall be annually expended under the direction of said court for books for the Public Law Library in Frederick City; and all in excess of said sum of two hundred dollars shall be annually paid to the Board of County Commissioners of said Frederick County, to be used by them for county purposes.

Law
library.

Approved April 7th, 1892.