

child shall have given to such licensee a written notice verified by affidavit that such person is of intemperate habits and requesting such licensee not to sell him or her.

H. No licensee under this act shall sell or furnish to any person intoxicating, spirituous or fermented liquors on any day on which elections are now or may hereafter be required to be held, nor on the Lord's day, commonly called Sunday, nor between the hour of twelve o'clock midnight and five o'clock a. m. at any time, except that if the licensee is a hotel keeper he may supply such liquors to be drank in their rooms or with their meals to bona fide guests.

On what days liquor shall not be sold.

I. Druggists and Apothecaries shall not be required to obtain license under the provisions of this act, but they shall not sell intoxicating liquors, nor compound or mix any composition thereof, except upon the written prescription of a regular physician; nor more than once on any one prescription of any physician and said prescriptions shall be filed and preserved by the druggist or apothecary filling the same, and upon complaint verified by affidavit shall be produced before the Circuit Court for Allegany County, when required; and any failure to comply with the provisions of this section shall render such druggist or apothecary so failing, liable to the same penalties, as if he had sold intoxicating liquors without a license.

Druggists.

J. Any person who shall hereafter be convicted of selling intoxicating, spirituous, or fermented liquors, or any admixture thereof, without a license under the provisions of this act, shall be sentenced to pay, a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars or undergo imprisonment in the county jail of not less than three months, nor more than twelve months, or both fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court before which such offender or offenders shall be tried.

Fines.

K. The license of any person having a license under the provisions of this act, who shall hereafter be convicted of violating any of the provisions of this act, or of the conditions of his license, shall be revoked, and he shall be subjected to a fine of not less than fifty dollars, nor more than two hundred dollars, or to imprisonment in the county jail for not less than thirty days, nor more than six months, or to both fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court before which such conviction shall occur and in default of payment of any fine and costs so imposed, the bond herein provided for shall be put in suit for the recovery thereof. The license of any person who permits minors to frequent or loiter about his place, or disreputable or disorderly persons

Revocation of license.